A “Good Works” Weekly Plan

In the Scripture about the Last Judgment, Jesus named the good works—such as feeding the hungry—that lead to eternal life in Heaven. Recall all the works that Jesus named. (Look back at your book if you need to.) Then for each day of the coming week, plan a way to put one of the works into action. It’s okay to act on the same work more than once, but try to address at least three of the works Jesus described.
