

YOUR TURN

A. Complete the following sentences, using words from the box.

1 Damaging another person's reputation by telling lies and spreading rumors is a sin called slander and violates the _____ Commandment.

2 Damaging another person's reputation by revealing something about them that is true but harmful is a sin called _____.

3 When we act, dress, and speak with _____, we respect our dignity and the dignity of others.

4 The cardinal virtue concerned with ensuring that all persons, especially the poor and oppressed, receive what is due them is called _____.

5 The _____ Commandment tells us to not envy others' possessions or talents and to be happy for what we have.

6 Stealing, cheating, and dishonesty violate the _____ Commandment.

- Seventh
- Eighth
- Tenth
- modesty
- justice
- detraction

B. Respond to the following:

How do Commandments 4 through 10, which you learned about in this and the preceding lesson, help us live in harmony with others?.

Choose one of these commandments and tell how young people your age can live it out.
