

Restored Order Session 1—Whole Community Ritual

We Belong

Before the Celebration

Welcome and Opening Prayer (15 minutes)

Begin the session with welcoming words and introduce yourself. Briefly review the goals and agenda for the gathering.

✦ If this session was preceded by a large group ritual and reflection, go to We Belong. If not, continue with the prayer.

Gather the group around the prayer setting, if possible; if not, have the group pause for a reflective moment.

Introduce the prayer with the Sign of the Cross.

Sing “Yes Lord, I Believe!” Songs of Celebration CD, track 7.

Pray these or similar words:

God, you are the source of life. You have made all things. We live with the breath of your life in us. We give you praise and thanks for these gifts. We belong to you. We are your children and we are never alone because you are present to us in so many ways, especially in the Church. Open our hearts that we may bring your life to those around us. We ask this in the name of your Son, Jesus. Amen.

Read John 15:1–17.

Invite the assembly to reflect on the Gospel using the following question:

- What does the image of the vine and branches suggest to you about your relationship with Jesus?

Ask the participants to share their responses with one or two people.

Invite participants to come forward to sign themselves with the holy water as a sign of their belonging to God and the Church.

We Belong (30 minutes)

Write the word “belonging” on the board or on chart paper. Ask the group to give you any word or image that belonging brings up for them. Jot down the responses and point out that real belonging involves investment in relationships and causes.

Distribute Eucharist Parent/Adult Catechesis Handout 1:1 and ask participants to complete it. Explain that it will help them see from their own experiences how people come to belong.

Organize the large group into smaller groups of 5 to 6 people. Ask participants to share their stories of initiation in the small groups.

Direct them to listen for any common characteristics of what happens to people in the process of coming to belong to a group.

Invite participants to share in small groups. Develop a list of characteristics common to everyone’s sharing that tells something about how people come to belong. At the end of the sharing, ask volunteers from the small groups to share the lists.

Use ideas from the list and give further input on what it means to belong to the Church. Emphasize that:

- Belonging is a process.
- Usually we are invited in (evangelization) or are really attracted by what we see (Christian witness).
- We make choices about our involvement.
- There are always rituals connected to the process of belonging (sacraments).
- As we become more involved in the group, we change (conversion).
- If it is really important to us, we tell others about it; we invite them in.

Allow some quiet time and ask participants to think about all the things they have just discussed and listened to, and to ask themselves:

- On a scale of 1–10 (10 being the highest), where would you rank yourself as belonging to the Church? Where would you rank yourself as belonging to God?

Break for refreshments and conversation.

What Are the Sacraments of Initiation? (30 minutes)

Use some of the comments from the previous session to move into this segment.

Point out that initiation, or coming to belong, is always a process, and it usually involves symbols, rites, and rituals. It is that way with the Church, too. The Church has three Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

Distribute Eucharist Parent/Adult Catechesis Handout 1:2 and go through it in a conversational style, making comments and explaining as questions arise. You may use the questions as a small group resource for sharing.

Allow time for questions, comments, and insights.

Summarize by saying these or similar words:

Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist are the Sacraments of Initiation. These sacraments celebrate our belonging to Jesus Christ and being incorporated into his Body, the Church. Most of us go through a process of understanding what this really means for us. It is important to keep in mind that when we celebrate sacraments without being in relationship with and participating in the community of faith, we miss out on a lot. It is also important to keep in mind that initiation is only a beginning. It is not a graduation.

Parent Moment (10 minutes)

Highlight the three Faith at Home features in the Child's Book and show how they will help the parents and family members to participate in the children's preparation.

Emphasize the importance of doing the activities on the Faith at Home page, especially the ritual action.

Closing Prayer (5 minutes)

Gather the participants in a circle around the prayer space. Pray these or similar words:

God, who calls us to yourself, who longs for us to belong to you, we ask for your blessing as we continue our faith journey. May we always be alert to your presence in the sacred signs of our lives and the celebrations of the Church. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

We close by reminding ourselves of our Baptism and our common kinship in God's family. In all that we do, may we reflect the glory of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. (Sprinkle with water.) Amen.

Thank everyone for their time and participation.

Encourage parents and family members to go to www.osvcurriculum.com for more ideas and suggestions.

Restored Order (2)–Whole Community Ritual

We Are Holy

Before the Celebration

- Choose a gathering space that will be conducive to prayer and that will accommodate the size of the group; the church, a chapel, or a gathering place in the parish hall would each be appropriate. You will want the group to be able to see, hear, and move easily during the ritual.
- Prepare the group for the ritual action of the Extension of Hands in Blessing and for the reflection on the sacred Scriptures.
- Select a good reader to proclaim the reading.
- Select four people for the entrance procession: to carry the Bible, the candle, the bowl of water, and the sacred chrism. Show them where and how to place them in the sanctuary or on the prayer table.
- If not in a church or chapel, place chairs in semicircular rows around the prayer space. Leave enough space for people to move in and out of the rows. If possible, have tables and chairs set up in another space for adult discussion after the celebration.

Materials

- A large, clear bowl with water, or if the celebration is in the church, use the baptismal font or pool
- A large candle or the Paschal candle
- A prayer table for the candle, sacred chrism, a baptismal candle, a Bible, and a stand
- Songs of Celebration CD
- Copies of the celebration for the assembly (www.osvcurriculum.com)

Read Luke 4:16–30.

Ask the assembly to share their responses with one or two people. Be sure to include children in the sharing.

Extension of Hands in Blessing

Invite the assembly and family members to extend hands with you as you pray:

Leader: May the Holy Spirit dwell in you and help you bring the light of Christ to others.

Large Group Sharing

Gather the responses of the small groups on poster board, chart paper, or an overhead projector. Ask for feelings and thoughts about the celebration as a whole, and also for specific parts of the celebration that were meaningful to members of the group.

Naming (30 minutes)

Ask the participants to name what they learned from the celebration about God, Jesus, the Church, Scripture, or their own Christian life.

Take each category separately and list responses on poster board, chart paper, or an overhead projector. When the lists are completed, use them to summarize the theology and meaning of the call to holiness in the Rite of Confirmation.

Affirm, add, or enlarge upon the following points:

- Blessings call down God’s favor on those being blessed. We can bless one another.
- The Holy Spirit is given to us at Baptism to be our helper and advocate.
- In Baptism, we are called to walk as children of the light to bring the light of Christ to others.
- The anointing or sealing with the Holy Spirit is the symbol of our being set apart or holy.
- Our holiness is manifested when we proclaim the values of God’s kingdom in our words and deeds, judgment, courage, knowledge, reverence, and wonder and awe.

Reflection and Small Group Sharing (20 minutes)

Ask “What will you do this week to nurture your bond with the Holy Spirit?”

Direct participants to reflect in silence for a few minutes and then share their responses with their group.

Closing Blessing (5 minutes)

All: Come Holy Spirit, come.

Allow time for questions, comments, and insights.

Summarize the comments.

Conclude with the following points:

- Holiness means “living a life modeled after the example of Jesus.”
- Following the call to holiness requires sacrifice and dying to some of our life patterns and choices.
- The Holy Spirit inspires and strengthens us to be holy.

Parent Moment (10 minutes)

Highlight the three Faith at Home features in the Child’s Book and show how they will help the parents and family members to participate in the children’s preparation.

Emphasize the importance of doing the activities on the Faith at Home page, especially the ritual action.

Closing Prayer (5 minutes)

Gather participants in a circle around the prayer space and pray these or similar words.

Spirit of the Living God, come to make us holy. Fill our hearts with love and give us the wisdom and courage we need to show the face of God to others that they will come to know the goodness of God.

We close by reminding ourselves of our Baptism and our common kinship in God’s family. In all that we do, may we reflect the holiness of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. (Sprinkle with water.) Amen.
